Biography: Mr. Jason Cuomo is a lifelong resident of the Towson area and a graduate of Calvert Hall College. He graduated Summa Cum Laude from Towson University and obtained his Juris Doctor with Honors from the University of Baltimore School of Law. Following graduation from law school, Mr. Cuomo worked as a law clerk for the Honorable John C. Themelis in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City. Since his admission to the Maryland Bar in 2004, Mr. Cuomo has concentrated his practice in matrimonial and family litigation, property matters, custody issues, financial support issues as well as serious personal injury litigation.

A pragmatic approach to these issues is designed to inform clients of how the law and judicial process work in an understandable way that lends itself to realistic expectations. Mr. Cuomo assists clients with an understanding of what's best for them, their children, and how to avoid protracted and costly litigation with thoughtful and effective settlement strategies. However, when a case cannot be settled, Mr. Cuomo is an adept litigator that effectively represents clients in the courtroom.

There is never a charge or fee for an initial consultation where Mr. Cuomo will personally review your situation face-to-face.
